

Membership and Affiliation Agreement

The American Association of Sporting Clubs and Sporting Clubs of America (AASC/SCA) reciprocal sporting club network program offers hunters and fishermen the opportunity to recreate and experience outdoor adventures in affordable, quality, and convenient hunting lodges and fishing resorts. AASC/SCA provides a service to lodge and resort owners, with the goal of increasing usage and revenues. For this purpose, AASC/SCA and the undersigned Lodge/Resort Camp Owner agree:

1. Each participating Lodge/Resort executes this agreement with the following obligations agreed upon. The agreement shall remain in effect annually by automatic renewal, however it may be cancelled by either party upon 120 day written notice provided notice is received by September 1 of each year before the publication of the following year's annual Directory. Lodge/Resort owners agree to honor SCA members for the entire year listing in the SCA Directory. Each year the properties will be provided an information revision sheet to make any changes necessary for the following year's listing at no charge to the Lodge/Resort owner.
2. The AASC/SCA program is not a franchise and it is not involved in the management of any lodge or resort property. No investment in AASC/SCA is required by or accepted from any lodge or resort property.
3. Participating Lodges/Resorts will provide facilities and services upon space availability. No designated percentage need be reserved.
4. The discounted services available to SCA members will be up to 20% off the regular and standard rates offered to the general public.
5. Each Lodge/Resort will provide SCA members with a clean, safe, secure, and friendly place to hunt, fish, and recreate outdoors, and offer SCA members the same rights and privileges offered its regular customers.
